

SUNDAY MORNING FBC WOMEN'S GROUP

Busy Women at FBC:

Do you find that it's difficult to participate in the adult Sunday School Class because of other commitments and realize that you have a need for a meaningful time focused on God with other Christian women?

Beginning Sunday, September 20, we will begin an informal group for our busy women, and we'll keep it to a half hour! We'll be meeting in the CE Wing Meeting Room in back of the Library. This will be a time of fellowship, perhaps a brief devotional, and prayer.

- We will start at 9 a.m. (We know YOU probably need to get your children settled into their Sunday School class and possibly grab a cup of coffee!)
- We will finish at 9:30 a.m.
- Anyone who does not need to leave at 9:30 is welcome to stay and fellowship.
- Each week will be independent of other weeks, so feel free to join us as often you can. There is no weekly commitment!

This time was created especially for choir members, greeters, café servers, and others whose commitments in the church do not allow them to participate in the adult classes offered during the Sunday School hour.
